STANLEY L. JAKI

Book Catalog #42

(as of February 15, 2010)

(This catalog supersedes all previous catalogs)

Father Stanley L. Jaki (1924–2009) was a Benedictine priest, theologian and physicist. He was Gifford Lecturer (1974–75, 1975–76) and, in 1987, received the Templeton Prize. Father Jaki was the author of over fifty books — many of them on the history and philosophy of science. He has written books on the Catholic faith as well. In addition, he established the Real View Books series to reprint books that are significant to the understanding and defense of Christian doctrine and culture. Each of these books has a long and instructive introduction by Father Jaki.
